Race, CKD, and Transplant: Turning the Needle Toward Equity

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 2022

5:30PM - 7:30PM CT

Lidia's Restaurant
101 W 22nd St - Kansas City, MO 64108

Join us for a roundtable discussion with Dr. Dinushika Mohottige, MD. Published over 50 times, Dr. Mohottige engages in patient- and community-centered, inequity-focused research around the impact of socio-structural factors on kidney health and kidney transplantation. In the evening's Roundtable discussion, she'll share key concepts in turning the needed toward equity, discuss the relationship between CKD care and race, and highlight examples on implementing change in the nephrology setting.

Audience: physicians (nephrologists, primary care and all specialties) and advanced practitioners. Program and dinner is complimentary. Space is limited, registration is required.
